ARCHITECTS without ARCHITECTURE

Thursday, January 11 - Friday, February 22, 2008

SICA is proud to kick off the New Year with a really outstanding exhibition.

Curator Trent Welcome has brought together an incredible ensemble of architectural talents for this show, entitled "Architects without Architecture". Noting that the recent output of many architects today is growing further from what many would consider to be traditional "architecture", Mr. Welcome has chosen to illustrate this observation through this exhibition.

He has assembled some of the top names in the field who are spreading the boundaries and the very definition of architecture. This intriguing collection of art products are produced by Ball-Nogus Studio, Joe Day, Form:uLA, Steve Fuchs, Moira Henry, Mark Johnson, LA PATTERNS, Mirai Morita, Roberto Paz, Nicholas Pisca of Gehry Technologies, PHAT STUDIO, and Florencia Pita.

Reception: Sunday, January 13, 2008 from 3-6 pm

Location: The Shore Institute of The Contemporary Arts

20 Third Avenue, Long Branch 732-263-1121

The gallery is open Wednesday and Thursday 1-5pm, Friday and Saturday from 11am - 6pm, and Sunday 1 - 5pm.
