BizEturtle Bulletin

Greetings!

Just sending out a heads up that I am moving BizEturtle to another hosting company. I am leaving the dreaded company I had to a new one. This old company had no way of communicating with them except via live chat or on facebook. There was no phone number I could call or anyone to e-mail my woes to. Here's hoping better days are to come.

BizEturtle:Events in Monmouth

Thank you so much for being a part of BizEturtle.

Sincerely,
Lynn
